Explanation of terms

Acquisition Agreement (AKA Purchase Agreement)

An agreement between a buyer and a seller, which covers all or a specified part of seller's catalogue and whereby the buyer purchases all publishing rights to the musical work(s) and the contractual terms under which they the works were originally assigned. The purchase can relate to either:

(a) the company itself, which would include both the right to use the existing company/catalogue name as well as the songs owned by the company, or

(b) the musical works contained in catalogue of the company at the time of purchase, excluding the right to use the existing company/catalogue name.

Pipeline Monies

Any money that is distributed to SOCAN for a time period that precedes the start date of the agreement, but has not yet been distributed to the assignor
